DEMOCRATIC STATE THESE SERVICES. PHILADELPHIA, November . - - ine Evening Telegraph says that the democratic state ticket is partly critainy all elected. General AtCan less undoubtedly defeats General Senti for sectionsy of Internal Affars. Judge Olmstead, the republican candidate 1.7 leutenant governor, leads his toket here and elsewhere, and may possibly be elected by a small majority, but the chances appear to be sgainst him. The cente will stand 28 republicans to 22 denocrats, but the house will have from 10 to 12 democratic majority. majority, making the legislature demo-cratic on joint ballot, and securing to the democrate the United States senator in place of Scott, republican.

4,000 DEMOCRATIC MAJORITY. New York, November 5.—Samuel J. Randail telegraphs from Philadelphia: "I feel certain that we have the state by ouer 4,000 majority, and a majority on joint ballot in the legislature. There are sixteen democratic congressmen elected.

VIRGINIA.

RICHMOND, Va. Nov. 5 .- A dispatch from Danville claims the election of G. C. Caber, conservative, for congress from the Fifth district over Thomas, republican B. B. Douglas, conservative, defeats Sener, republican, present member from first district. Plant, rapublican, is re-elected in the second district over Good, by nearly 200 majority. There is a probability of a contest in this district, conservatives claiming that a large number of fraudulent negro rotes were cast, they be-ing temporarily colonized from fourth district (Stowall's) in which there was no organized contest. The congressional delegation from Virginia stands 7 conservatives to 2 Republicans, a conservative gain of S.

KANSAS.

ATCHINON, November 4 .- The Daily Champion has returns from eighty-two of the legislative districts of the state. Of these sixty elect republicans, ten elect re-formers, nine elect democrats, two elect formers, nine elect democrats, two elect independent-republicans and one was elected on a herd-law issue. Of the twenty districts not heard from, fifteen will probably elect republicans and three will send apposition members, so that the re-publicans will save about two-thirds of the lower house. Of the thirty-three sen-ators chosen the republicans elect twenty and the opposition ter. Three districts have not been heard from or are in doubt. Of these the republicans will carry two, giving them twenty-two of the thirtynorth-western counties show very heavy republican majorities.

MICHIGAN.

ALMOST FULL RETURNS. DETROIT, Nov. 5 .- Returns received by the Free Frees, up to this time, from all but thirteen small counties, give Bagley, republican, for governor, a majority of 3,922. In the eighth congressional district the vote is exceedingly close, with the chances in favor of Bradley by from 50 to 100 majority.

SOUTH CAROLINA. INCOMPLETE RETURNS.

CHARLESTON, Nov. 5 .- The News and Courier, from incomplete returns, con-cedes the election of Chamberlain by about 6,000 majority, also concedes the election of Wallace, republican, and Hoge, republican, to congress. Rainey's re-election is still in doubt.

ALABAMA.

DEMOCRATIC GAINS.
MONTGOMENY, November 5.—The dispatches still show democrat gains. The legislature is about sixty democrais to forty republicans Returns from the Second district are not all in. The changes are in favor of the election of Williams, dem-LATER.

Williams, democrat, for congress, is certainly elected in the second district, over Rabier (colored), republican. The changes of the election of Brombery, democtat, for congress in the First district, are good.

SOUTH CAROLINA.

20,000 RADICAL MAJORITY. Washington, November 5. - Attorney-General Williams received the following dispatch this morning :

COLUMBIA, S. C., November 5.—To Hon. George H. Williams, Attorney-Gen-eral—Chamberlain is elected by 20,000 majority. Five republican congressmen are elected. No serious disturbances yet R. M. WALLACE, United States Marshal.

ARKANSAS.

ALL DEMOCRATIC CONGRESSMEN. LITTLE ROCK, Nov. 5 .- From official returns so far received, the democrats claim the election of their entire congres sional ticket by the following majorities Gauze, first district, from 4000 to 5000; Siemons, second district, 800 to 1500; Wilshire, fourth district, from 8500 to 4500 over both his opponents, Haynes and Thomason.

THE PECK FAMILY.

INTERESTING RE-UNION OF A FAMILY OF LEVITES.

The Peck family have lately held a re-union at the residence of Bishop Jesse T. Peck, in Syracuse, N. Y., commencing on Friday, October 23, and continuing until the following Monday. It was a remark-able gathering, inasmuch as it assembled together sixteen out of the nineteen living Methodist preachers of the family. The following fismed gentlemen were in at-tendance:

Rev. Luther H. Peck, of Pitcher, N Y., aged 80 years. Rev. Geo. Peck, D. D., of Scranton, Pa.

aged 77 years. Rev. Andrew Peck, of Cortland, aged 74 Rev. William Peck, of Fulton, aged 70 years.
Bishop Jesse T. Peck, of Syracuse, aged

[The above are sons of the late Rev. Luther and Annie Coller Peck.]
Rev. George Peck Bennett, son of Mrs. achel Bennett, eldest daughter of Rev. Luther Peck.

Rev. William M. Weich, grandson of Rev. Luther Peck, both of Iowa. Rev. Daniel Ball, of Chataqua, grand-son of Martha, second daughter of Rev. Luther Peck.

Luther Peck. Rev. George M. Peck, of Honesdale, and Rev. Luther W. Peck, of Waverly. Penn, sons of Rev. George Peck, D. D. Rev. E. A. Peck, of Sheldrake, N. Y., and George A. Piace, of Syracuse, grand-son of Rev. Andrew Peck.

son of Rev. Andrew Peck.
Rev. J. Townley Crane, of New Jersey,
son-in-law of Rev. George A. Frck, D. I.
Of these gentlemen, three are presiding eiders, five are ex-presiding eilers, and one bishop. There were also present two surviving sisters of the bishop (four having died), Mrs. Annie Croweil, and Mrs.
Susanna Smith, the fifth and sixth daughters of Rev. Luther and Annie C. Peck.

THE VENDOME COLUMN. [From the London Globe.]

The Vendome Column is finished All that is wanting now is the statue, but that will have to swait political events. It would be manifestly absurd to place any other statue on a monument dedicated to Napoleon than one of the Emperor. Moreover, the vote of the assembly decidto its former state. But it is impossible to predict what folly the French may commit. A French paper gives a romantic account of the state, well known to Kanlishman, which surrounted the col-Englishmen, which surnounted the colums under the second empire. Originally the work of Chaudet, u was removed in 1815 to be melted down and to furnish the bronze for the statue of Henry IV. the bronze for the status of Henry IV. The workmen, then Bonapartian, clubbed together to buy bronze to replace the metal which was sacred to them, and with which they made several reduced copies of the original statue. It is said that ten of these statuettes are to this day in the left leg of the good King left leg of the good King Henry. The little Victors, which the Emperor held in his hand escaped the Emperor held in his hand escaped the breaking up, and was discovered some years ariser ward. In 1832 the statue was replaced, but it was the Emporer as the "Little Corporal," who in singularly bad taste figured on the summit of a column which is an imitation of the pillar of Trojan at Rome. When Napoleon III wished to restore the work of Chaudet, it was intrusted to M. Dumont, who was furtunate enough to be able to replace the original Victory in Causar's hand. After original Victory in Casar's hand. After theoverthrow of the column by the Communists, all the pieces of the statue were receivered except the Victory. A compiece model, however, exists in the artists studio. The building of the column begar eighteen months ago, and has cos 150,000 france, the sum voted for it, besides a supplementary sum for paving.

Seven hundred pieces of bronze had to be pieced together again, and each plate was made good separately. Here a nose had to be replaced, or a leg, or an entire figure.
So exceptional is this kind of work, that there is no precise term in art or manufactures to describe it adequately. It is not unlikely that the Parisians, delighted at reeing one of their most beautiful mon-uments restored to them almost uninjured, may hasten on the rebuilding of the Tuilleries and Hotel de Ville.

> VERY MEAN [Chicago Tribune.]

There is published in San Francisco weekly paper known as the News Letter, which seeks a monopoly of the business of traducing respectable women. The readiness with which it will publish a libel on woman was recently illustrated, and as the case involves a statesman of great recent preminence, the circumstances wil be of increased interest. Senator Jones, of Nevids, has been in receipt of anonymous letter assailing the reputation of Miss Georgiana Sullivan, his fiancee. For a longtime the senator paid no attention to these dirty slanders, but his attention was called to a coarse squib upon the young lady's father. Mr. Sullivan, in the News-Letter. Mr. Sullivan, accompanied by Senator Jones, visited the office and told Mr. Marriott, the alternative father paper, that he was neigh personally reponsible for the paragraph. Mr. Marriott replied that the society news written in imitation of the Walks Among the Churches" of the Chicago Times, was sent by mail. A plan was formed to detect the contributor of the exquisite gossip, and he was caught in the act of dropping a letter into the box at the postoffice, addressed to the News Letter. It was found to be a young society man, and a well-known lawyer.

An order was obtained by Mr.

Sullivan from Mr. Marrist for possession of the letter, and it was found to contain a very obscane and scurrilous attack upon Mr. Sullivan, his isughter, and her affianced husband, the Senator from Nevada. The handwriting was identified as that of a sister of the young man who mailed the letter, and, further-more, as that of the anonymous letters received by Senator Jones. The dastarily author was a rejected suitor of Miss Sullivan. She has not been the only lady, for it is stated that the men has for some time been engaged in the business of writing up "society news for the News-Letter, and anonymous letters to young couples engaged to be married, and to husbands and wives.

THESE GENTLE-MEN have seen and are pleased with the chromos "Pluck," which for their humor and fine moral lesson as well as the excellence of execution, are the most popular chromos of the day, and should have a place in every family. PRICE, $10 THE PAIR.
